Dennis was in his first year at university, studying History. He was rather a lazy student and he tended to avoid _____ (work) whenever he could. In the middle of the term, his history professor gave out an assignment to be handed in within two weeks. The assignment was quite a difficult one, so his professor advised them _____ (start) earlier. Dennis intended _____ (do) the assignment, but he postponed _____ (write) it for a week. He had a bad habit of _____ (delay) things. The following week, he forgot _____ (do) it totally.

The night before the assignment was due, he suddenly remembered it and rushed to the library to find the books he needed. He tried _____ (read) as much as possible on the topic, but there wasn't enough time. Dennis considered _____ (ask) for more time to do his paper, but his History professor was known to be very tough on students, so he finally decided _____ (cheat) and copy his paper from somewhere else. He found an old article on the same topic and quickly typed it out. The next day, he submitted the paper.

The following week, he was alarmed _____ (see) his professor approaching him, looking angry. "Is this your own work, or did you copy it?" asked the professor. Dennis denied _____ (copy) the paper. The professor was angry with Dennis for not _____ (tell) the truth. "If you expect me _____ (believe) that, you must be very stupid," said the professor. "Every word is taken from an article I wrote myself five years ago. Did you really think I would forget _____ (write) it?" Dennis couldn't help _____ (feel) sorry for telling such a lie.
