

Taller grado 11

Reading comprehension.

Tarea

Traducir el texto completo y resolver las preguntas.

Sacar el glosario y aprender esas palabras desconocidas.

No usar traductor de Google

Entregar el miércoles 29 de Abril por facebook: Jhon García "fotos"

Reading-comprehension

The Fox and the Crow.

One day a Crow found a large piece of cheese. She sat in a tree and wanted to eat it, but suddenly she saw a fox.

The Fox came up to the tree. He looked up and saw the Crow. He saw a large piece of cheese also. The Fox wanted to get the cheese. He had a good plan in his mind.

He says: "How beautiful you are, Mrs. Crow! You have such big eyes and a beautiful nose. Your feathers are nice too. What a pity you cannot sing to show your voice."

The Crows opened her mouth and says, "But I CAN sing. Caw! Caw!"

When the Crow opened her mouth, the piece of cheese fell out. The Fox ran up to the cheese and ate it.

"Thank you very much," he says. The cheese was good. And you CAN sing well. What a pity you don't THINK WELL." And the Fox ran away.

Answer the questions.

1. What is the Crow like?
2. What is the Fox like?
3. What did the Crow find one day?
4. Where did it sit to eat it?
5. Who wanted to take the Crow's cheese?
6. What plan did the Fox have?
7. Did the Fox realize his plan?
8. What is the message of the story?
9. Do you think the author wanted to satirize people's character?
10. What would you do if you were a Crow?

The fox and the grapes.

One day the fox went for a walk. He came to a wall and saw some grapes there. The fox wanted to get and eat the sweet grapes. But the sweet grapes were very high up on the wall. So the fox jumped to get the grapes but unfortunately his attempts didn't bring any results.

He jumped again and again, but he couldn't get them. He got very angry and decided to stop because it was getting dark, and he was getting angry. His legs hurt with all that running and jumping. At last he stopped trying.

As he walked away, he said to himself, "I don't really want those grapes. I'm sure they are too sour to eat."

1. Complete the sentences:

- A. One day the fox saw some.....
- B. The grapes were very.....
- C. He jumped again and again but.....
- D. After his attempts he said.....
- E. "I am sure they are....."

2. Answer the questions:

WERE, WAS or DID?

- A. Wherethe fox see the grapes?
- B.he want to them?
- C.....the grapes tasty?
- D.What.....did the fox say?
- E.....you like the story? Why? Why not?
- F. What is the moral of the story?

3. Write three forms of the following verbs:

Go-
Come-
See-
Want-
Jump-
Do-
Can-
Get-
Decide-
Bring-
Hurt-
Run-
Stop-
Eat-

