house → houses (casa/s)
car → cars (coche/s)

Ejemplos:

Singular: Fish (pez o pescado) sheep (oveja)

Plural: fish (peces o pescados) fishes

sheep (ovejas) sheeps

2. Cuando el plural varía de modo irregular. Por lo tanto, no existe regla la cual se pueda seguir y hay que aprenderse las formas irregulares de cada uno.

Woman mujer	women mujeres
Child niño	children niños
Person persona	people personas / gente

Tema: Adjectives to describe

Los adjetivos son palabras que acompañan a los sustantivos y designan sus cualidades. Por norma, en español el adjetivo suele ir justo detrás del nombre, pero en inglés las reglas cambian. ¿Te has preguntado alguna vez por qué en inglés decimos un big black dog y no un black big dog? Es porque en inglés tenemos un orden establecido para el uso de adjetivos para describir objetos.<sup>2</sup>

El orden de los adjetivos en inglés

- | Tipo de adjetivo       | Ejemplos                        |
|------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. opinión/valor:      | delicious, wonderful, pretty... |
| 2. tamaño/longitud:    | short, big, small, tall...      |
| 3. edad/temperatura:   | new, old, young, hot, cold...   |
| 4. forma y superficie: | round, thin, square...          |
| 5. color:              | red, black, blue, green...      |
| 6. origen:             | Spanish, American, French...    |
| 7. material:           | silver, cotton, paper, iron...  |
| 8. uso:                | electric, political...          |
| 9. nombre:             | bath (towel)                    |

Tema: Like and Dislike

Al hablar de Like y Dislike nos referimos a aquello que nos gusta o no, ya sea una cosa o una acción. Por ejemplo:

I like the animals. Me gustan los animales.
I dislike the onion. Me desagrada la cebolla.

Cuando quieres indicar que una acción te gusta o no, el verbo de la acción va acompañado de la terminación "-ing", así:

She likes dancing to salsa. A ella le gusta bailar salsa.
You dislike listening to music. A ti te desagrada oír música.

Para indicar lo que te agrada o no, existen varios verbos, como:

Love: You love your dog. Tú amas tu perro.
She loves reading the newspaper. Ella ama leer el periódico.
Like: He likes his new bed. A él le gusta su nueva cama.
They like running in the beach. Ellos gustan de correr en la playa.
Enjoy: The dog enjoys the water. El perro disfruta el agua.
I enjoy watching television. Disfruto ver televisión.
Dislike: They dislike that taste. A ellos les desagrada ese sabor.
I dislike reading. Me desagrada leer.
Hate: We hate horror movies. Nosotros odiamos las películas de terror.
I hate skating in those parks. Yo odio patinar en esos parques.<sup>3</sup>

Tema: present continuous

El "present continuous" de cualquier verbo se compone de dos partes: el presente del verbo to be + el "present participle" del verbo principal.

(Para formar el "present participle": raíz+ing, e.g. talking, playing, moving, smiling)

Afirmativa

Sujeto + to be + raíz + ing

She is talking.

Negativa

Sujeto + to be + not + raíz + ing

She is not (isn't) talking

Interrogativa

to be + sujeto + raíz + ing

Is she talking?

Ejemplos: TO GO, "present continuous"

Afirmativa      Negativa      Interrogativa

I am going      I am not going      Am I going?

You are going      You aren't going.      Are you going?

He, is going      He, isn't going      Is he, going?

We are going      We aren't going      Are we going?

You are going      You aren't going      Are you going?

They are going      They aren't going      Are they going?

Nota: contracciones de las formas negativas: I'm not going, you're not going, he's not going etc.

Funciones del "present continuous"

Como ocurre con todos los tiempos verbales del inglés, la actitud del hablante es tan importante como el momento en que ocurre la acción o el evento. Al emplear el "present continuous", nos estamos refiriendo a algo que no ha terminado o está incompleto

El "present continuous" se utiliza:

- para describir una acción que está teniendo lugar en este momento: You are using the Internet. You are studying English grammar.
- para describir una tendencia o una acción que está sucediendo en la actualidad: Are you still working for the same company? More and more people are becoming vegetarian.
- para describir una acción o evento futuros que ya están programados: We're going on holiday tomorrow. I'm meeting my boyfriend tonight. Are they visiting you next winter?
- para describir una situación o evento temporales: He usually plays the drums, but he's playing bass guitar tonight. The weather forecast was good, but it's raining at the moment.
- con "always, forever, constantly", para describir y enfatizar una sucesión de acciones repetidas: Harry and Sally are always arguing! You're constantly complaining about your mother-in-law!

Excepciones

Los verbos de sensación y percepción (see, hear, feel, taste, smell) suelen utilizarse con can: I can see... Pueden tomar la forma progresiva, pero, en este caso, su significado suele variar.

- This coat feels nice and warm. (percepción de las cualidades del abrigo)
- John's feeling much better now (está mejor de salud)
- She has three dogs and a cat. (posesión)
- She's having supper. (está tomando)
- I can see Anthony in the garden (percepción)
- I'm seeing Anthony later (tenemos intención de vernos)
