

TALLER III SABATINO

INGLES CLEI - 4

Andrew come to the United States to live for a year, and he is talking to Barbara.

Andrew: Where are you going Barbara?

Barbara: I am going to buy a costume.

Andrew: Why?

Barbara: Because next Saturday is October 31st. It's Halloween.

Andrew: We don't celebrate that day in England.

Barbara: It is a day when children dress up in costume and they go out onto the street at night. They knock on the doors, asking for candy and they say: "Trick or treat, give me something good to eat".

Andrew: That's interesting; did you dress up last year?

Barbara: Of course. I love it. I dressed up as Morticia Adams. I went to a party With my boyfriend and we had a wonderful time! We danced all night And we got home at 2:00.

Andrew: What do your parents think about costume parties?

Barbara: They also enjoy them. They went to another party and they had a costume contest. By the way, my parents won the prize.

Andrew: That's cool! Can I join you this time?
